

Hixson-Lied Visiting Artist: David Baskin

Date: Sep. 26, 2018

Time: 5:30 pm

Richards Hall Room: 15

Additional Info: RH

Contact: School of Art, Art History & Design, 402-472-5522, schoolahd@unl.edu

The School of Art, Art History & Design is pleased to welcome David Baskin as a Hixson-Lied Visiting Artist Sept. 24-28. He will give a public lecture on Sept. 26th at 5:30 p.m. in Richards Hall 15.

David Baskin has taught at the Cooper Union School of Art and the New York Institute of Technology and was a visiting critic at the School of Visual Arts, New York, NY; Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY, and the University of Buffalo, NY. His honors and awards include a McDowell Colony fellowship; a Pollock-Krasner Foundation grant; a Yaddo residency; and a commission through Brookfield Properties for a lobby installation at the Grace Building in NY, NY. David Baskin was one of the original members of the Brooklyn based non-profit art organization Smack Mellon. He lives and works in New York, NY.

Additional Public Info:

Parking is available in the Stadium Drive Parking Garage on the corner of Stadium Drive and T Streets.